Disability Discrimination Claim Form

Introduction

This form is available in larger font and in other languages.

If you require any information regarding the completion of this form please call us on 0141 302 5860.

The Additional Support Needs part of the Health and Education Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland can consider and decide claims of disability discrimination relating to pupils in school education in Scotland under the terms of the Equality Act 2010, Schedule 17, Part 3. It can consider appeals (claims) made by the parent or the person, where they have the capacity to make the claim, against the responsible body that has discriminated against the person because of a disability.

Schools must not treat disabled pupils less favorably because of their disability. Discrimination can also occur when a disabled pupil is placed at substantial disadvantage because reasonable adjustments have not been made to account for their disability.

A disability discrimination claim may be made in the following circumstances. It is unlawful for a school to discriminate against a disabled applicant or pupil in relation to:

- admissions
- the provision of education
- access to any benefit, facility or service (this and provision of education covers all aspects of school life and the teaching of disabled pupils)
- exclusions
- any other detriment

The procedures are governed by The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Health and Education Chamber (Procedure) Regulations 2017.

PLEASE ENCLOSE ANY DOCUMENTS YOU THINK WOULD HELP THE TRIBUNAL UNDERSTAND YOUR CLAIM.

To help you:

- There is an information note on our website at www.healthandeducationchamber.scot

Additional Support Needs

Health and Education Chamber

First-tier Tribunal for Scotland

4th Floor, 1 Atlantic Quay

45 Robertson Street

Glasgow

G2 8JB

Please do not delay, as a claim should be received within 6 months of the alleged discrimination.

When did the alleged discrimination take place?

Please give the date or dates. If the conduct took place between given dates then specify. If you are unsure of the exact date(s) then indicate that they are approximate. If the conduct or failure is ongoing then please indicate the whole period concerned.

How did the alleged discrimination take place?

Please describe:

(a) what happened

(b) the location

(c) why you consider the conduct to be wrong

(d) please give the names of the person(s) involved

(e) in what way was the disability the reason for the alleged discrimination.

If you have received letters from the school or education authority which relate to the matter you are claiming about, you should send copies of these with this form as well as any other relevant information.

Please give as much detail as you can.

Please continue on a separate sheet of paper if necessary.

If your claim is time critical such as an exclusion or if it affects an event that has not yet happened e.g. a school trip, that is in the future, please let us know if you would like to request a shorter case statement period and provide any relevant information as to why the claim should be dealt with as an emergency.

Section 6 – Putting things right

The Tribunal has no power to award money as compensation for any discrimination that may have taken place. If the Tribunal decides the claim in your favour, what result are you seeking?

Some remedies that the Tribunal may order include:

- A statement that discrimination has occurred;
- A written apology;
- Training to be provided to school staff;
- Policies to be developed;
- Re-instatement in the school;
- You may also indicate any other remedy not stated above.

Please note that whatever you request, the Tribunal may decide that there is a more appropriate remedy and may direct that this be awarded as well or instead.

Section 7 – Additional Support Needs References

The Tribunal also deals with appeals against decisions made by education authorities about children’s and young people’s additional support needs.

If you have made or are making a reference on additional support needs, would you like the Tribunal to hear this claim at the same time as your reference (if it is considered appropriate to do so)?

Yes  No

What Happens Next?

We will check your claim form to see if the Tribunal can deal with the matters you have raised. If we need further information, we will contact you.

When we are sure that we can proceed, we will register your claim. We will then send you guidance about preparing your case statement. We will copy your claim to the Responsible Body when it is registered and also your case statement so they can respond. There is an information note on making a disability discrimination claim on the Health and Education Chamber website.

You are given 20 working days (4 weeks) to prepare a case statement. The responsible body has a further 10 working days to produce their response to this. You might think you have submitted enough information in your claim. You do not need to prepare a case statement but you may need further time to consider if there is any other information which might assist the Tribunal to understand your child and their needs.

If you want your case to proceed as quickly as possible or think you may need more time you may ask for these time periods to be changed.

A tribunal will comprise of three people – one will be a legal member who is an experienced lawyer and the other two are specialist members, with expertise in education, social work or health. Occasionally a tribunal will be made up of one legal member, sitting alone. The hearing will normally be held close to your home. We will send you more information at the end of the case statement period. All hearings are allocated at least a full day. More complex hearings may be allocated more time.
